NEWS RELEASE

The Human Resources Professional Association (“HRPA”) turns to Real Facilities for real estate advice

TORONTO – June 14, 2010 – HRP A conducted an exhaustive search of brokers and advisors to assist the organisation in studying the optimal real estate solution for its office space and training facilities in Ontario. Real Facilities is proud to have been chosen amongst very worthy competition to was chosen assist HRP A in this regard.

Real Facilities negotiated 18,250 square feet office lease on Bloor Street for HRP A

“Everything you promised was delivered on time, on budget and on plan. I can’t believe your team was able to mesh so well and work so effectively with our own office admin group to complete such a complex relocation over a single weekend. “Stop working Friday afternoon and start working Monday morning” sounded like a tag line, but Real Facilities helped make it a reality. No question, your FLOW™ process works!

The HRP A regulates the HR profession in Ontario. Your experience in working with not-for-profit organizations and external boards was evident throughout the project. We commend you on your highly skilled consensus building process.

Thank you for negotiating such a cost effective and creative lease agreement. I appreciated the fact that you were squarely on our side of the negotiation table at all times.

We would not hesitate to recommend the Real Facilities team to anybody looking for a better way to handle their corporate real estate needs.”

William (Bill) Greenhalgh
Chief Executive Officer
